

Commercial offer!

Forest Technology is a company, which produce sawn timber, linear wood products and pine fuel pellets. The factory currently processes up to 5 thousand cubic meters of round timber per month. The company equipment includes the machines made by leading European manufacturers, as automatic timber lines WALTER. We produce up to 80 cubic meters of product per shift.

Products

We are producer and supply kiln dry sawn timber with following specifications: thickness — 19+ mm, width — 50+ mm, length — 1000+ mm. Drying takes place in special Luca industrial kilns with a total volume of 500 cubic meters. The company's manufacturing capacities allow for the production of spliced linear wood products with a thickness of up to 150 mm of any volume in accordance with the client's specifications.

Specifics of the Forest Technology

Our company activity is based on the following principles: quality control, high technological effectiveness and fulfillment of contractual commitments. Forest Technology LLC export sawn timber, linear wood products and fuel pellets to European and Asian countries.

Best regards,

Igor Patsera

Mob: +38 097 727-58-52

ip@forestech.com.ua

www.forestech.com.ua

